THE BEST DEMONSTRATIONS IN EUROPE

By combining its international network with those of its partners, Tech&Bio brings together farming professionals from around the world. Visitors, exhibitors and speakers discuss issues and find the answers to their questions during the two-day event. The agricultural show is the perfect opportunity to share individual expertise

WHY COME TO TECH&BIO ?

- Find out more about the most innovative and advanced organic farming techniques.
- Watch some of the best demonstrations in Europe.
- Find out about specific and innovative examples and listen to French and international experts' success stories.
- Be a visitor but take an active role too! We encourage you to attend conferences and to contact us with topics which will be discussed by French institutional stakeholders.
- Be at the heart of an unmissable event for anyone involved in organic farming: a real opportunity to develop your network.

NEED FINANCIAL HELP?

- Free entry
- Accommodation (2-night hotel stay)
- A contribution of €1,000 for travel costs for the entire delegation, depending on its size
- 2 meals (at the show and the gala dinner)
